

KATHLYN WILLIAMS SIGNS WITH THE MOROSCO PALLAS COMPANY

Kathlyn Williams, who has achieved such world wide popularity under the Selig banner, will shortly appear in productions exclusively for the Oliver Morosco Photoplay company and Pallas pictures. Miss Williams' initial subject for the Paramount program will be a vehicle well adapted to the star's dramatic talents.

Miss Williams, who has been voted by all followers of the silent drama as one of screenland's most talented and popular beauties, claims Butte, Montana, as her birthplace. She was educated at Wesleyan university, Helena, Montana, but soon forsook her pencils and books for the lure of the stage. She entered her theatrical career when very young, appearing under the managements of Belasco, Willard Mack, and William Morris, which fitted her well for the demands of the photoplay. Like many other stage celebrities, she soon left the spoken stage for the silent drama, appearing for the first time under the direction of D. W. Griffith during the old Biograph day, where her associates were such well known present day favorites as Mary Pickford, Arthur Johnson, Henry Walthall, Billie Quirk and many others.

On leaving Biograph, Miss Williams joined the Selig company, under whose trade mark she appeared until her recent resignation. This popular exponent of screen artistry achieved her most remarkable and rapid stride to favor by starring in the first serial photoplay ever produced, entitled "The Adventures of Kathlyn." Such well known features as "The Spoilers," "The Rosary," "The Ne'er Do Well," "Back to the Primitive," "The Two Orphans," "Thou Shalt Not Covet," and many others, all proved stepping stones to the greatest height of her success.

In addition to her talents as an actress this new Morosco-Pallas star has attained considerable distinction as a writer. She is a member of the Authors' league and classes among her offerings in the field of literary endeavor "Thy Will Be Done," "The Last Dance," "Strange Case of Talmal Land," "The Pride of Baldoon," and many others, all of which have been produced.

Promptly upon resigning from the Selig company, Miss Williams received four attractive offers to star in big subjects, but decided in favor of the Morosco-Pallas in view of their standing in the business and their affiliation with the Paramount program.

GIRLS FIND RATTLER ON THE DOORSTEP

Snakes have been very scarce this year, according to the reports of the desert rats. However, two young ladies of this camp believe that all the reptiles of the earth are residents of Tonopah. In fact, they have never seen so many centipedes, scorpions, tarantulas and snakes as there are in this vicinity, and in spite of the fact that no one else has seen a solitary pest. The condition is psychological, as President Wilson would say.

A few evenings ago these ladies took it upon themselves to move into their new home, whereupon they gathered their belongings and journeyed at a two cylinder pace up Brounger avenue to their mansion on the hill. Feeling somewhat elated on moving, all care was banished, and, whistling the tune of the latest fox trot, they ambled up to the porch. Lo, and behold! A nice, large, juicy rattler awaited at the door—the door was open. A cry—a piercing cry, was uttered. The lady next door, owner of the snaky home, ran out of the house to help the damsels in distress. Picking up a rock, she hurled it with Herculean force and struck the snake midships. Slightly peeved at such treatment, the intruder turned tail and slid into the house through the open door.

Not desiring to sleep with such a companion, the ladies retreated and spent the evening at a friend's home. The following day they summoned courage and departed for their snakeless home, and there remained in peace, for the snake "had went" and failed to leave a brood—thanks to Allah. So they think, but their friends are advising chloroform and fumigating so the bachelor girls will not wake up some morning to find a slimy visitor cuddled up in their blankets.

OPHIR CANYON TUNGSTEN MINING DEAL CLOSED

W. S. Johnson, former postmaster at Manhattan, passed through Austin Saturday on his way from Reno to Ophir canyon, down Smoky, to confer with representatives of Atkins-Kroll, of San Francisco, to whom he recently sold a tungsten property in the above named canyon. Mr. Johnson says the work already done has exposed high grade scheelite and that there is great promise of a productive mine soon being developed, says the Reese River Reveille.

Mr. Johnson was once principal owner of the Earl property, on Litigation hill in Manhattan, holdings which he sold at a handsome figure. He still has interests in the Pine Tree camp, having a major interest in the Zanzibar, a property adjoining the White Caps on the east, with side-lines about 100 feet from the place

"My dealer was right
—they do satisfy!"

There's more to a cigarette than merely "pleasing your taste." Other cigarettes, besides Chesterfields, can do that.

But Chesterfields do more—they begin where the others stop!

Because Chesterfields satisfy!—they give you the true meaning of smoking!

Yet they're MILD!

This new combination ("satisfy," yet mild) can be had only in Chesterfields—because no cigarette maker can copy the Chesterfield blend!
